Our readers will please take notice that a goodly number of Tallahassee's best and most enterprising business men expressed their appreciation of the establishment of The True Democrat by giving us their advertisements for the first issue. For this we tender our most grateful thanks, and promise such constant improvement in the paper and its circulation that they will have no cause to regret their action.

The dance at the Leon Tuesday evening, tendered to a number of visiting young ladies by the young people of the city, was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

Quality high and prices low at Mickler's Store.

The Hardee-Smith Drug Company has put neat and attractive mile posts out on the different roads leading to the city with their advertisement on same. It pays to advertise always, and especially in your local newspaper. Try some of it in The True Democrat.

See the nice things to eat at P. T. Mickler's Store.

Mr. J. W. Dollar, a well-known resident of Leon county, was the first cash subscriber to The True Democrat, having entered the office on Thursday, just as the first form was going to press, and made his name good by depositing one dollar in The True Democrat's treasury for a year's subscription.

Mickler's J. E. M. Flour can't be surpassed.

We have just completed the contract to print minutes for two colored church conferences, and today contracted to print minutes for a colored Baptist association. The work is done, too, neat and clean. See samples of it if you wish like printed matter.

Mr. C. H. Johnson, representing the Dodson Printers' Supply Co., of Atlanta, one of the best all-round fellows of Georgia, stopped over at the Leon Tuesday night, and joined his family at pleasant Panacea Springs Wednesday for a few days of needed rest. Mr. Johnson is making a very successful trip through this territory for his house, and if Dodson sells it to you it is always the best and as he represents it to be.

The approaching nuptials of Miss Letitia, eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. W. A. Rawls, to Mr. D. M. Lowry, manager of the Tallahassee Cotton Oil Mills, will constitute an event of exceptional interest in the social life of the Capital City. Both of the parties to the matrimonial compact are social favorites, and each has hundreds of friends, both here and elsewhere, who will gladly wish them joy.

It does not often occur, perhaps, to a new paper to have good, live reading matter, already in type, crowded out of its first issue by a press of advertisements, but that is exactly what has happened to The True Democrat.

Ex-Governor Wm. S. Jennings arrived in the city Tuesday.

How do you like the typographical appearance of The True Democrat? Suggestions for improvement are now the order of the day, and we will be glad to hear from all who can help us improve things—especially so when you hand us the dollar or take advertising space. Come up with the dollar.

He is telling his friends that his election as secretary of the State Senate is positively assured, and is receiving unanimous congratulations.
